Catherine is the Senior Client Relations Manager at TidalShift (formerly SPM Learning.) She brings a wealth of knowledge and professional experience in the areas of organizational and leadership development and strategic business execution.

She founded and led her own learning and development Private Career College for over 6 years, working with local organizations to help their teams improve upon their skills and leadership abilities within the IT world. Recently, she was Director of Operations for an international leadership and development organization that was dedicated to improving leadership and personal performance to help individuals and teams improve upon their successes. Catherine's ability to focus her positive energy on opening doors to new possibilities has allowed her to strategically align future initiatives with TidalShift's new vision.

Catherine understands what it takes to mobilize an organization and get to the next level of performance. She has partnered with Fortune 100 and 500 companies to design custom leadership and change management programs to help organizations and individuals grow their leadership capabilities and sustain transformational results. Outside the business world, Catherine spends her time outdoors, skiing (both downhill and x-country), preparing for triathlons and enjoying cottage life with her family.
